Home Working Guide: Protecting Mental & Physical Health

The Welsh Government & Home Working Aims 2021

Following changes in working patterns during the COVID-19 pandemic, the Government is aiming to support the long-term shift to home working for its workforce. The NHS Video Consulting Service has demonstrated that more than 30% of the workforce are now working from home.

Tax Relief for Home Working

You may be able to claim tax relief for additional household costs if you have to work at home on a regular basis, either for all or part of the week. This includes if you have to work from home because of coronavirus (COVID-19).

- ✓ Sometimes less stress & anxiety
- ✗ Limited socialisation
- ✗ Difficulties separating work & life
- ✗ Difficulties in home working set up and obtaining devices

Mental Health & Well-being

Important steps to get the best out of home working & protect your health and well-being.

Maintain a positive work/life balance

- Stick to similar work patterns as you would at the workplace. Work similar hours, and take similar breaks.
- Look after your own well-being so you can continue to support your team and do your job to your best ability.

Check in with colleagues regularly

- Have regular virtual or telephone check-ins with colleagues and chat about everyday matters as you would do in person.

Establish new ways of working with your team

- Learn new ways to communicate and collaborate.
- Learn new ways how to support each other as a colleagues.

BUT if you feel isolated or lonely, always reach out to your colleagues, friends or family and get the support you need.

Protect the Back, Neck & Shoulders

Since the COVID-19 pandemic, and an increase in home working patterns, spinal surgeons are reporting an increase in younger patients presenting with more back, neck and shoulder problems.

Paratoi Man Gweithio Gartref

Trefnu'r Man Gweithio:

- Gosodwrch ddyfeisiau'n briodol fel na fydd y gwddf, pen y cefn na'r ysgwyddau dan bwysau.
- Dylech osgoi eistedd mewn un lle am gyfnod hir i atal y cymalau rhag mynd yn stiff.
- Cadwch ystum da wrth eistedd.
- Buddsoddwrch mewn cadair dda sy'n cefnogi eich gwddf, eich cefn, eich ysgwyddau a'ch coesau.
- Cadwch yr offer o hyd braich.
- Cadwch eich traed yn gadarn ar y llawr.
- Cymerwch seibiannau rheolaidd i symud o gwmpas ac ymestyn.

Argymhellion:

- Gellir defnyddio desgiau 'eistedd a sefyll' sy'n gallu bod yn fuddiol.

“Dylid cyfuno ystum da â man gweithio effeithlon”
